

|  |                                     |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL           |                                     |
| COUNTRY Hungary                       | REPORT                       |
| TOPIC Gasoline Allocations in Hungary |                                     |
| EVALUATION                            | PLACE OBTAINED               |
| DATE OF CONTENT                       |                                     |
| DATE OBTAINED                         | DATE PREPARED 30 August 1954 |
| REFERENCES                            |                                     |
| PAGES 1                               | ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)      |
| REMARKS                               |                                     |
| This is UNEVALUATED                   |                                     |
|                                       |                                     |

In Hungary, gasoline is issued only on presentation of gasoline coupons. Monthly gasoline allocations amount to approximately 25 liters per 100 cubic centimeters of piston displacement. Coupons are paid on receipt of gasoline and no cash payment is made at road filling stations. The prize for one liter of gasoline was 0.51 forint.

